JAY ROBERTS
STEVE GOOCH
THURSDAY 11 AM
@
MASON BDG 1133

Senator Steve Gooch & Representative Jay Roberts will address a few of Georgia's specific transportation needs and current efforts towards reform. The two legislators are currently co-chairs of the Joint Study Committee on Critical Transportation Infrastructure Funding. This committee has met several times since the legislative session to address new sources and methods of funding transportation project to keep up with the needs of the state's population. The chairmen will provide an update on this committee's work and also address the critical need for transportation solutions to continue to support Georgia's economic competitiveness.

Representative Jay Roberts is the Chairman of the House Transportation Committee and represents the 154th district. Born and raised in Irwin County, Representative Jay Roberts attended ABAC for 2 years before graduating from Valdosta State University with a degree in Criminal Justice. He played baseball at both schools. He and his wife, Sarah, have 2 children, Justin and Jana. Serving since 2003 in the Georgia State House of Representatives, Representative Roberts serves on several legislative committees in addition to his appointment as Chairman of the House Transportation Committee.

Senator Steve Gooch was elected to the Georgia State Senate in 2010 and represents the 51st District. He serves as the Secretary of the Majority Caucus in the Georgia State Senate and as Chairman of the Senate Transportation Committee. Senator Gooch graduated from North Georgia College and State University where he earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and a Master's Degree in Public Administration. Senator Gooch and his wife Shannon have three children: Samuel, Seth and Sawyer.
